FAITH DIRECT...

Are you starting to plan your summer vacations? Consider enrolling in eGiving through Faith Direct so that your gift can reach us even when you cannot. Visit www.faithdirect.net and use our church code: NJ484. Your gifts through Faith Direct will help stabilize our parish finances through the busy (but beautiful) summer months.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family with your time and talents as well as treasure!

God Bless You,
Fr. Joe

There will be second collection next weekend for Extended Catholic Obligations, a portion of this collection will go to The Peter's Pence Collection to help provide the Holy Father with financial means to respond to those who are suffering around the world.

MOTHER'S DAY... I share with you a reflection from an unknown author on mothers...Happy Mother's Day - Fr. Joe God our Creator, we pray:

for new mothers, coming to terms with new responsibility;
for expectant mothers, wondering and waiting;
for those who are tired, stressed or depressed;
for those who struggle to balance the tasks of work and family;
for those who are unable to feed their children due to poverty;
for those whose children have physical, mental or emotional disabilities;
for those who have children they do not want;
for those who raise children on their own;
for those who have lost a child;
for those who care for the children of others;
for those whose children have left home;
and for those whose desire to be a mother has not been fulfilled.
Bless all mothers, that their love may be deep and tender, and that they may lead their children to know and do what is good, living not for themselves alone, but for God and for others.
Amen.

JUBLILEE YEAR OF MERCY...We want to live this Jubilee Year in light of the Lord's words: Merciful like the Father. The Evangelist reminds us of the teaching of Jesus who says, "Be merciful just as your Father is merciful" (Lk 6:36). It is a program of life as demanding as it is rich with joy and peace. Jesus' command is directed to anyone willing to listen to his voice (cf. Lk 6:27). In order to be capable of mercy, therefore, we must first of all dispose ourselves to listen to the Word of God. This means rediscovering the value of silence in order to meditate on the Word that comes to us. In this way, it will be possible to contemplate God's mercy and adopt it as our lifestyle. — Pope Francis

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK... If we try to see everyone and everything through God's eyes with humility, we will begin to accept an attitude of humility in our hearts and we will begin to be humble. -from Sacred Silence

THE JOY OF LOVE...March 19, 2016 Exhortation
Here is an excerpt from Pope Francis letter Chapter 4 # 95--- The fourth chapter of his letter is a reflection on the verses from St Paul's First letter to the Corinthians chapter 13...here is what Pope Francis said in reference to the verse: "Love is not jealous" 13:4. Pope Francis points out that "Paul wants us to know that love has no room for discomfiture at another person's good fortune. Envy is a form of sadness provoked by another's prosperity; it shows that we are not concerned for the happiness of others but only with our own well-being. True love values the other person's achievements. It does not see him or her as threat. It frees us from the sour taste of envy. It strives to discover its own road to happiness, while allowing others to find theirs."

YOU DID IT FOR ME ...
It has been one year since a 7.8 magnitude earthquake claimed 8,669 lives and leveled more than 500,000 homes in Nepal. CRS was distributing aid within hours of the earthquake, providing emergency shelter materials, water and hygiene kits, and blankets. To date, we have assisted more than 171,000 people with shelters, supplies, cash grants, trauma healing, and clearing debris. — Catholic Relief Services

DONATE CHILDREN'S SHOES FOR GHANA ...

Now that the spring season has arrived, many of us will start the proverbial "spring cleaning." Undoubtedly, we will come upon old and used sandals, shoes, and sneakers hidden away in boxes and closets. If you have any footwear items (children's sizes and styles, kindergarten through high school) that you no longer need, we have a solution on how you can make space and simultaneously help struggling families in Africa.

The solution? Please donate "gently used" (and new pairs) of footwear for children in the small village of Brahabehome in the West African nation of Ghana.

What is needed? Sandals, sneakers, and shoes are necessities that only a few families can afford.

Why? Many children wear worn-out shoes and others walk barefoot to school. The average family income in this village is less than $130.00 US Dollars per month.

How can you help? All you have to do is help fill the barrel with sandals, shoes, and sneakers for children. The barrel and the shipping costs have been donated (total = $220).

THE DONATION BARREL WILL BE IN THE GATHERING SPACE ON THE WEEKEND OF MAY 14-15 PLEASE BRING YOUR DONATION OF SHOES ON THIS WEEKEND. For more information, please contact: Chris Linne – chrislinne@comcast.net

ARE YOU AN ADULT WHO WOULD LIKE TO LEARN

MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH? If you have not received Holy Communion and/or Confirmation would you like to learn more about how this can be done as an adult? Do you know any neighbors who have expressed an interest in the Catholic church...then invite them to join our group of inquirers.

The RCIA team is holding a Summer Sunday Series that will prepare inquirers to become candidates and catechumens for the start of our program in October 2016. We will be meeting the second Sunday of the month at Our Lady of the Mountain church on June 12, July 10, August 14 and September 11. As a group we will attend the 9:15 AM Mass at OLM. We want all of you to feel comfortable and meet our RCIA TEAM and fellow family members. We will sit as a group in the front pews of OLM. All of your family is invited to attend mass and our short class afterwards. Mass is 9:15 AM to 10:15 AM and then we will go to the parish office or parish center from 10:30 to 11:15 AM for a discussion on the readings that you just heard at mass. This program will gradually acclimate you to learn how our RCIA program operates, some of the topics we will discuss in classes and meet our instructors. Call the office if you are interested 908 850- 0652.

WHY WE ARE CATHOLIC...We are Catholic because we believe: As Lord, Christ is also head of the Church, which is his Body. Taken up to heaven and glorified after he had thus fully accomplished his mission, Christ dwells on earth in his Church. The redemption is the source of the authority that Christ, by virtue of the Holy Spirit, exercises over the Church. "The kingdom of Christ is already present in mystery", "on earth, the seed and the beginning of the kingdom." - The Catechism of the Catholic Church paragraph 669.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS...

Please keep the food pantry in your prayers and on your shopping lists during May. They are in particular need of medicine cabinet items, peanut butter and jelly, and coffee/tea, but anything you can donate will be greatly appreciated. Thank You.

MESSAGE FROM FR. DAN...IT'S GOOD TO BE BACK!

I am recovering well from my recent back surgery of Feb. 26th which was followed by six days in the hospital and two months of convalescence. I am now able to once again resume physical therapy to become stronger. The road to full recovery is still some distance away, but I feel so very blessed to have received such good care from all my doctors which began with conservative care including diagnosis and epidurals, physical therapy and chiropractic. I am grateful to my surgeon and to those who continue to treat me with such care and concern. A special thanks to Fr. Joe for his guidance, patience and continued understanding along the way. I am ever-grateful to the parishioners of OLM and St. Mark's for the love and prayers sent my way in this trying time and ask for your continued patience and prayers.

The importance of love and friendship—of faith and prayer in the health and wellbeing of each and every one of us cannot be underestimated. Loving thanks to all who sent me their hearts through beautiful cards, snacks and reading materials—especially the beautiful way the children of our community reached out to me with their awesome artistry. The many kind words and funny comments kept a huge smile on my face and in my heart. My heart is with you and my prayers are with you as we continue along our journey together as a family of faith and love in Christ for the greater glory of God...Fr. Dan
