FROM FR. MARCIN...

My dear parishioners,

..... is the day we celebrate the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, one week before His resurrection (Matthew 21:1–11). As Jesus entered the holy city, He neared the culmination of a long journey toward Golgotha. He had come to save the lost (Luke 19:10), and now was the time—this was the place—to secure that salvation. Palm Sunday marked the start of what is often called “Holy Week,” the final seven days of Jesus’ earthly ministry. Palm Sunday was the “beginning of the end” of Jesus’ work on earth.

Palm Sunday began with Jesus and His disciples traveling over the Mount of Olives. The Lord sent two disciples ahead into the village of Bethpage to find an animal to ride. They found the unbroken colt of a donkey, just as Jesus had said they would (Luke 19:29–30). When they untied the colt, the owners began to question them. The disciples responded with the answer Jesus had provided: “The Lord needs it” (Luke 19:31–34). Amazingly, the owners were satisfied with that answer and let the disciples go. “They brought the donkey to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it” (Luke 19:35).

As Jesus ascended toward Jerusalem, a large multitude gathered around Him. This crowd understood that Jesus was the Messiah; what they did not understand was that it wasn’t time to set up the kingdom yet—although Jesus had tried to tell them so (Luke 19:11–12). The crowd’s actions along the road give rise to the name “Palm Sunday”: “A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road” (Matthew 21:8). In strewing their cloaks on the road, the people were giving Jesus the royal treatment—King Jehu was given similar honor at his coronation (2 Kings 9:13). John records the detail that the branches they cut were from palm trees (John 12:13).

Even as the countless multitudes waved the palm branches and shouted for joy, they missed the true reason for Jesus’ presence. They could neither see nor understand the cross. That’s why, “as [Jesus] approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it and said, ‘If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes. The days will come upon you when your enemies . . . will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognize the time of God’s coming to you’” (Luke 19:41–47). It is a tragic thing to see the Savior but not recognize Him for who He is. The crowds who were crying out “Hosanna!” on Palm Sunday were crying out “Crucify Him!” later that week (Matthew 27:22–23).

Holy Thursday is the commemoration of the Last Supper of Jesus Christ, when he established the sacrament of the Eucharist prior to his arrest and crucifixion. It also commemorates His institution of the priesthood. During the Passover meal, Jesus breaks bread and gives it to his Disciples, uttering the words, “This is my body, which is given for you.” Subsequently, he passes a cup filled with wine. He then says, “this is my blood...” it is believed those who eat of Christ’s flesh and blood shall have eternal life.

HOLY MASS – 7:00PM. AFTER MASS ADORATION OF THE SACRAMENT WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE OLD DAILY CHAPEL

Good Friday is the day on which we commemorate the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. According to the gospels, Jesus was betrayed by Judas on the night of the Last Supper, commemorated on Holy Thursday.

LITURGY OF THE GOOD FRIDAY WITH THE VENERATION OF THE CROSS – 7PM
STATIONS OF THE CROSS – 3:00PM

Holy Saturday (Easter Vigil) is the high point of the Easter triduum celebrating the passion and resurrection of Jesus. With a rich display of symbols, rites and readings, the church in worship expresses her faith in the mystery that brings her into being.

Rejoice! This night says as it brings before us the deepest symbols of our hopes and fears. The darkness, sign of evil and death, has been overcome by light. A lamp, a candle has been lit; a fire is enkindled in our hearts; a nourishing water flows through our lives; a baptism destroys what is unclean and brings to life again.

Rejoice! This night says to all creation. The Word who made all things, as a new Adam, freshly proclaims God’s promise of life. All creation celebrates God’s love.

CELEBRATION OF THE EASTER VIGIL – 8PM

A Traditional Blessing of the Easter Food.
HOLY SATURDAY AT 10AM
Basket Contents and Symbolism

Butter: This dairy product is often shaped into a lamb, reminding us of the goodness of Christ that we should have toward all things.

Easter Bread: A round rye loaf topped with a cross, symbolic of Jesus, the Bread of Life.

Horseradish: Symbolic of the Passion of Christ still in our minds, but sweetened with some sugar because of the Resurrection.

Eggs: Indicate new life and Christ's Resurrection from the Tomb.

Sausage: A spicy sausage of pork products, indicative of God's favor and generosity.

Ham: Symbolic of great joy and abundance.

Smoked Bacon: A symbol of the over abundance of God's mercy and generosity.

Salt: So necessary an element in our physical life, that Jesus used its symbolism: "You are the salt of the earth."

Cheese: Shaped into a ball, it is the symbol of the moderation Christians should have.

A candle, often marked like the Paschal Candle lit during the Easter Vigil, is inserted into the basket to represent Christ, Light of the World.

A colorful ribbon and sometimes sprigs of greenery are attached.

The linen cover is drawn over the top and is ready for the trek to the blessing.

!!!PLEASE JOIN US FOR THE CELEBRATION OF THE HOLY WEEK!!!

St. Dismas – March 25

The Good Thief (First Century)

St. Dismas is the name traditionally assigned to one of the two criminals – most likely insurrectionists – who were crucified on either side of Jesus on Golgotha. According to the Gospel of Luke (chapter 23), one of these criminals joined in the general mockery of the crowd: "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other criminal, however, rebuked him: "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." Addressing the Lord, he said: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

These words elicited from Jesus one of the most poignant lines in Scripture: "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Many apocryphal legends of St. Dismas circulated in the early Church, and his name was added to the Roman martyrology. His story is a reminder that physical proximity to Jesus was no guarantee of salvation. Those who taunted him on the cross or pounded the nails in his hands were just as close. But words of true faith – even uttered in the last moments of a wretched life – could open the doors of paradise.

"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. St. Dismas (Luke 23:42)

FROM FR. JAVIER...

The Seventh Commandment - You shall not steal.

Dear's brothers and sisters let us continue our learning from the seventh commandment, in which it is promoted the respect for the integrity of creation; "Animals, like plants and inanimate beings, are by nature destined for the common good of past, present, and future humanity. Use of the mineral, vegetable, and animal resources of the universe cannot be divorced from respect for moral imperatives. Man's dominion over inanimate and other living beings granted by the Creator is not absolute; it is limited by concern for the quality of life of his neighbor, including generations to come; it requires a religious respect for the integrity of creation".

Animals are God's creatures. He surrounds them with his providential care. By their mere existence they bless him and give him glory. Thus men owe them kindness. We should recall the gentleness with which saints like St. Francis of Assisi treated animals.

Also God entrusted animals to the stewardship of those whom he created in his own image. Hence it is legitimate to use animals for food and clothing. They may be domesticated to help man in his work and leisure. Medical and scientific experimentation on animals is a morally acceptable practice, if it remains within reasonable limits and contributes to caring for or saving human lives.

It is contrary to human dignity to cause animals to suffer or die needlessly. It is likewise unworthy to spend money on them that should as a priority go to the relief of human misery. One can love animals; one should not direct to them the affection due only to persons. May God be with you always.
