THE FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY... we read in today's Gospel of the words that St. Matthew ascribes to Jesus just before he ascended into heaven.

"All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

In these few short lines we hear Jesus instruct his disciples to go forth with the power of Father, Son and Holy Spirit into the world. Jesus says the same to us today as we come for this feast day of the Most Holy Trinity. Jesus says go forth with the name and power of God and do good, teach others of the command to Love and remember do not be afraid for..."I am with you always, until the end of the age." I find it very comforting to believe that God is always so near to us. The life spirit of God is what gives us as Christians the inner power and strength to witness in the world for goodness, love and truth. Sometimes it seems difficult to be a Christian in the world.

Sometimes we wonder if our efforts will ever be effective. The power of God within us as Jesus promised assures us that it's worth the effort. I am with you Jesus says...with Jesus our redeemer and the spirit of God creator and God the sanctifier we cannot fail. May the Holy Trinity be praised and glorified through us and in us...Amen. – Fr. Joe

GHANA SHOE COLLECTION UPDATE:

As of Monday, May 16, we have a total of 479 pairs of footwear (sandals, shoes, and sneakers). Out of this total number, we have 84 brand new pairs (retail value of $699.41). The amount collected exceeds our expectations, as we have about "twelve" 42-gallon contractor bags filled to the top. We will certainly need more than one barrel. Thanks again!

DIOCESAN FOOD COLLECTION...NEXT WEEKEND

Next week on the Feast Day of Corpus Christi Bishop Serratelli has asked all the parishioners of every parish in the diocese to participate in a Diocesan Food Drive which will help stock the shelves of the 9 Catholic Charity food pantries throughout the diocese. We have done this for the past few years with great success. The parishioners of St. Mark's and Our Lady of the Mountain are asked to bring to the gathering space 1 to 5 lb. bags of rice. This rice will be taken to one of the diocesan food pantries which will distribute it to those who come seeking help. Thank you for what you do to feed the hungry.

YOU DID IT FOR ME...

Andrea,* an RN for 20 years, was asleep one night when her husband attacked her. The paramedics found no pulse at first, but Andrea fought to survive. She had suffered a traumatic brain injury. Her husband got 30 years behind bars. A decade after the attack, Andrea still feels unsafe when alone. She joined a Catholic Charities' Call Reassurance Program. A volunteer calls her once a week reminding her that she is loved and that she needs to take her medicine. Andrea feels blessed now. She brings the staff home-grown tomatoes and sends birthday cards to other clients. She says she wants to give to others like others have given to her. To learn more, visit

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY...

"Lord, these are my sins, they aren't this man's or that woman's.... They're mine. You take them. This way I'll be saved. When we are able to do this, we will be that beautiful people the humble and poor people who trust in the name of the Lord." –Pope Francis

THE JOY OF LOVE... - POPE FRANCIS EXHORTATION OF MARCH 19, 2016

Here is an excerpt of what Pope Francis wrote about St. Paul's words: "Love is not boastful..."Those who love not only refrain from speaking too much about themselves, but are focused on others; they do not need to be the center of attention. Some think that they are important because they are more knowledgeable than others; they want to lord it over them. Yet what really makes us important is a love that understands, shows concern, and embraces the weak. The inner logic of Christian love is not about importance and power; rather, "whoever would be first among you must be your slave" (Mt 20:27). Joy of Love Chapter 4 #97 & 98

WHY WE ARE CATHOLIC...

We are Catholic because we believe: Before Christ's second coming the Church must pass through a final trial that will shake the faith of many believers. The Catechism of the Catholic Church paragraph 675

MAKE A DIFFERENCE....Share your home with a Foreign Exchange Student.

CIEE's USA High School students stay with their host families for either 1 to 2 semesters while attending a US high school. The cultural exchange between your family and the student will help you both to gain a deeper understanding of human values that unite all nations across the world. By having these students live with American families, we break down the barriers that divide people, not only across international borders, but also within our own community. CIEE students have their own funds for school lunches, clothing and personal spending needs as well as medical insurance. Please call Holly at 973-271-6166 and make a difference in our world.
