TALKING TO GOD...

I was recently reading excerpts from a book entitled: Prayers for Catholic Women authored by Julie Dortch Cragon. One quote from her book - "Lord, open my mind that I may be aware of your presence in my daily life. Open my heart that I may offer you all my thoughts. Open my mouth that I may speak to you throughout my day. I am grateful that you wish to hear my voice. To you I give my all. Help me to do your will, every hour of every day." In this short prayer she prays for "Openness of mind, heart and mouth..." It is a great prayer to put a person in a prayerful mode with God. Openness to the voice of God in our daily lives is something that we all need to have more of in our lives. The more open we are to the message of God's love the more we will be persons of mercy who are open to all the possibilities that God might place before us. We are called to be disciples who are united in love. Christians are to be reconcilers. We are called to be healers in times of division. How do we do this - all things begin with prayer - listening with an open heart to the word of God that calls us to love and not to hate. Through our daily prayer we are helped by God's grace to accept the daily challenge to be a true Christian each day. May our hearts always be open to God's way...Fr. Joe

"THANK A COP"...

This project was proposed by the mother of a police officer from OLM and it is a very concrete way to show support for our police. For the next several weeks we will be collecting "Thank You" cards and notes from the parishioners at OLM, St. Marks and St. Luke's for our State and Local Police Officers. These cards and notes will be hand delivered by the family to Police Departments in our area to express our appreciation for the sacrifices they make on our behalf. In light of the several murders of Police Officers over the past year and most recently the past two weeks, it is time for us to stand up and thank these fine men and women who are putting their lives on the line each and every day to protect us. They need to know that we are grateful for all they do. There will be a bin in the Gathering Space for you to deposit your cards. If you would like to donate, we will also be accepting $10.00 gift cards for places such as Dunkin Donuts, MacDonald's, Burger King, etc. to be distributed to the precincts along with the cards. If you have any questions you can contact Pam Hodgskin at 908-832-2965 or at <Hodgskin@yahoo.com>. Thank you for your kind consideration....Fr. Joe

PARISH PICNIC... SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 18, 12:30 - 3:30 P.M.

We had a planning meeting this week and things are coming together for the parish picnic. We ask you to please reserve the day for some family fun. There will be a registration form in the gathering space and forms in the bulletin in the coming weeks. It is a great help to our planning if you sign up early. Picnic food, games, dunk tank, rock wall among the favorites will be back again.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...

"Pray as though everything depended on God. Work as though everything depended on you." — St. Augustine

JULBILEE YEAR OF MERCY...the year of mercy will end in November but our challenge to extend mercy to everyone will never end...

"Being Christian isn't easy and we cannot become Christian with our own strength; we need the grace of God. There is a prayer which should be said every day: 'Lord, grant me the grace to become a good Christian, because I cannot do it alone.'" Pope Francis

WHY WE ARE CATHOLIC...

We are Catholic because we believe: The unity of Christ and the Church, head and members of one Body, also implies the distinction of the two within a personal relationship. This aspect is often expressed by the image of bridegroom and bride. The theme of Christ as Bridegroom of the Church was prepared for by the prophets and announced by John the Baptist. The Lord referred to himself as the "bridegroom." The Apostle speaks of the whole Church and of each of the faithful, members of his Body, as a bride 'betrothed' to Christ the Lord so as to become but one spirit with him. The Church is the spotless bride of the spotless Lamb. Christ loved the Church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her. He has joined her with himself in an everlasting covenant and never stops caring for her as for his own body. The Catechism of the Catholic Church 796.

FR DAN ... is making progress. I talked to him this week and he seemed in good spirits. If you wish to send him a card there is a basket in the lobby or drop it off at either parish office.

UPDATE ON SHOES FOR GHANA...

Several weeks ago both parishes of OLM and St. Mark's contributed shoes for the children of Ghana. Here is an update report that was sent to me. About two weeks ago the barrels and five boxes of shoes arrived in Ghana and cleared their port customs. On July 12th the school headmaster traveled by overnight bus to Accra, the capitol of Ghana to arrange to transport them back to the village 170 miles away. They arrived intact and last week the local school officials began the process of identifying the children most in need who will benefit from your donations. The shoe distribution was scheduled for July 19th...thank you for your generosity.
