OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO OTHERS IN NEED...

The story of the curing of the blind man that we heard from the Gospel of John has many aspects for reflection. The one I am thinking of as I write this reflection is about how Jesus always responded with mercy, compassion and healing to the sick that came to him and as in this case to those whose path he crossed. The burden of sickness, illness or long-term disabilities is part of our human condition but that being said it is not easy for anyone to accept. Each week in our Catholic Churches we pray for those who are sick. There is a human being in need of our prayers behind the names we hear read out. Like the blind man Jesus saw and cured we are called to react in the face of illness too. Suffering is a part of our lives. There is a very old belief that God only gives us what we can bear for our cross. For some people it is the cross of physical illness, others bear mental or emotional illnesses, still others suffer from the continue effects of broken relationships, others carry burdens of the past that prevent them from walking into the future. Perhaps this week we can do two things. First, recognize that we share in the sufferings of Jesus in some way and acknowledge that in our prayer to God. Second in some small way we can help those whose sufferings we see before us as Jesus did...Fr Joe

MOVING FORWARD WITH FAITH...

Thank you to all who have responded to the recent parish increased offertory campaign. I appreciate your response to help St. Mark's. I am sure whoever my successor as pastor will be he will appreciate your generosity as he gets to know you as a parish family...Fr Joe

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

A thought for the day: Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love. -- Mother Teresa

LENTEN REFLECTION...

Pope Francis reminds us that prayer is the best way to overcome blind spots in our attitudes toward others. He doesn't say it will be easy. But neither does he let us off the hook. If we search our hearts, we know that we've all been guilty of that desire to hold someone accountable long after we think we've forgiven him or her.

LENTEN SCHEDULE...

Please check the printed schedule of event in the bulletin for further activities.

THIS WEEK FOR LENT I WILL...

Stop comparing myself to others or read a chapter of the gospel of St. Mark each day.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES...YOU DID IT FOR ME

Fernando dreams of becoming a businessman—and of a better future for his family. That's what led him to YouthBuild, a CRS-sponsored program that trains young people in business. "YouthBuild is a family because families help you realize your dreams," Fernando says. Thanks to the support of his wife throughout his YouthBuild experience, he knows this to be true. RICE BOWL REMINDER...

Rice Bowls can be dropped off in the church office or gathering space any time before Easter.

WHY WE ARE CATHOLIC

We are Catholic because we believe: Christ stands at the heart of this gathering of men into the "family of God". By his word, through signs that manifest the reign of God, and by sending out his disciples, Jesus calls all people to come together around him. But above all in the great Paschal mystery - his death on the cross and his Resurrection - he would accomplish the coming of his kingdom. "And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself." Into this union with Christ all men are called. The Catechism of the Catholic Church 542.

SAINT MARK'S GARDEN CLEAN UP....

Attention St. Marks – Please join us on Saturday, April 8 from 9am – Noon to clean up the gardens surrounding the church. While those who have committed to care for an island are requested to attend, we would love for others to show up as well. Please bring gardening tools and gloves. We will provide a generator with an electric hedge trimmer to cut down tall grasses. Anyone interested in donating rather than helping, please call Kim Dunn at 908-813-2495 as we will need donations of mulch as well as plants. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Just as Jesus reached out to the Samaritan woman, so we are called to reach out to our communities in prayer and fasting for God to heal our land. Please join us, and those in over 340 cities around the world, in transforming our culture by praying for the babies and their mothers and fathers, for those who need post-abortive healing, and for those who work at Planned Parenthood.
